BY THE COURT:-

This writ petition was filed way back on 22/6/2006 in which petitioner who is a convict and serving sentence in Central Jail Jaipur prayed for grant of parole. In the reply, it has been submitted that the petitioner has not completed the work allotted to him by the Jailer and has been absenting from Jailer not obeying the order of the sentence passed by the trial court for rigorous imprisonment.

In the facts of the case, therefore, I do not deem it appropriate to pass any order in the present petition which was filed more than an year ago. It is further considered appropriate to direct the respondent-authority to consider the application of the petitioner for grant of fresh parole in accordance with law and in doing so, he may take into consideration his conduct for the subsequent period.

With this observation, the writ petition is disposed of.
